PRIVACY NOTICE*

The annual year for membership of the Society commences on 1st September in each year. The GDPR requires all members to complete a fresh Membership Application Form each year (to ensure that the data held by the Society is up-to-date and accurate). The contact details of every member of the Society given on their Membership Application Form will be held by the Society encrypted on computer. Copies of the Membership List will only be held by the four Officers, the Membership Secretary and the Webmaster. The data on the List will be processed for the following purposes:

1. To communicate with individual members (i) to advise of Society events in which they may be interested, (ii) to check the accuracy of the data held and to correct any errors (upon request to the Membership Secretary members can at any time view the data held) and (iii) to check the position of those members who have not renewed their membership by 31st October in each year.
2. To check that the subscriptions paid as recorded on the List agree with the Society's accounts.
3. To verify membership for website registration, Society meetings and events and in connection with any research enquiries or visits to the Archives.
4. To generate signing-in sheets for meetings and recording attendances as indicated thereon. Any processed statistical analyses will not include individual data.
5. To distribute the four quarterly Journals to those members who have not elected to receive them electronically. The List includes distribution codes based on members' addresses.
6. To distribute hard copy communications to those members who have not elected to receive them electronically. This includes, but is not limited to, Notices of General Meetings, Membership Application Forms, Questionnaires on the running of the Society.
7. To check the List for members who have, or should have, registered on the website.
8. To carry out such internal administration as the Society deems necessary in pursuit of its legitimate interests.

Individual members have the right to access the data held for them, the right to have their personal data corrected/completed if it is inaccurate/incomplete, the right to object to or restrict the use of their data and the right to have their data erased. Requests by individual members for any of these can be made to the Membership Secretary, John King, or to the Treasurer, Charles Clark.

Neither the List nor any individual member's data will be passed on to any other person(s) or organisations (unless required by law). One copy of the List will be archived for historical research. All other copies will be destroyed on or before 1st January of the following year.

Note: You should keep the Privacy Notice. Do not send it to the Membership Secretary.
